

POSTCOLONIAL, ANTICOLONIAL, AND DECOLONIAL THEORIES AND METHODS

New Graduate Seminar!

Fall 2023 Tuesdays 2 – 5pm

Prof Eve Darian-Smith, Department of Global and International Studies

The seminar explore recent works that touch on different decolonial issues and literatures around the world. We focus on how specific scholars define and use the terms “postcolonial”, “anticolonial” and “decolonial” across different historical and spatial contexts, and how these terms may feature in students’ own research agendas.
